

ANOTHER NAMELESS GHOST – INFO

The Swedish occult rock band Ghost, centered around creator and songwriter mastermind “Tobias Forge,” is currently considered one of the most innovative rock band phenomena in recent years.

The German Ghost tribute band ANOTHER NAMELESS GHOST, established in 2016, is not only the first of its kind in Germany but also one of the most renowned worldwide through social networks. Their mission is to authentically recreate Ghost’s music and performance, providing their audience with an entertaining and impressive tribute concert experience. ANOTHER NAMELESS GHOST views their tribute to Ghost as both a homage to the original band and a mission to introduce more people in Germany to the original band’s music, contributing to the growth of the national fan community. Their increasingly larger fan base is already willing to travel several hundred kilometers to participate in the euphoric fan parties of this special tribute band.

One standout feature of ANOTHER NAMELESS GHOST is their remarkably similar masks resembling those of Ghost’s members, along with partially authentic costume replicas, all aimed at enhancing the authenticity of their performance. By reviving the protagonists from past albums upon request, they allow the audience to experience the atmosphere of a genuine Ghost show live during their captivating 120-minute program.. Overall, ANOTHER NAMELESS GHOST is a must-see for all fans of atmospheric tribute shows.
